Matcha Ceremonial Grade

Matcha je mljeveni prah listova zelenog čaja. Listovi se beru ručno, a nakon toga se pare i suše. Nakon što se osuše, melju se u fini matcha prah. Listovi se beru prije standardnog vremena za berbu, sa grmova koji su skriveni od sunčeve svjetlosti, zbog čega dolazi do sinteze hlorofila i veće razine aminokiselina, posebno L-teanina. Matcha je sjajna alternativa kafi, ne stvara nervozu, a podiže raspoloženje. Može se piti sa vodom ili biljnim mlijekom.

Matcha is a powdered form of green tea leaves. The leaves are handpicked, steamed, and dried. After drying, they are ground into fine matcha powder. The leaves are harvested before the standard picking time from bushes that are hidden from sunlight, which increases chlorophyll synthesis and levels of amino acids, especially L-theanine. Matcha is a great alternative to coffee, does not cause jitters, and elevates mood. It can be consumed with water or plant-based milk.
